

BIBLICAL CHAMPIONS

Biblical Champions Savings Seed Topic for 2023 will be announced next Spring:

Biblical Champions Savings Seed is the financial incentive component to encourage financial literacy and motivate children to build savings for higher education and learning opportunities. The award is a $500 CD account opened in child's name. Criteria to earn this award are to:

- 1) Participate in current Biblical Champions event and earn a gold medal.
- 2) Complete four Acts of Kindness (community/family service). Form must include description (details on the service that was performed) and be submitted by event.
- 3) One-to-two-page essay on annual topic must be submitted by event.
- 4) One minute video of speech on annual topic must be submitted by event. (Include brief introduction of self and recap of essay topic.)

Selection will be made and announced two weeks after event for the essays and speeches to be reviewed.

Note: One child in each age group (K-2, 3-6, and 7-12) may participate after fulfilling the criteria above.
